

University of Pittsburgh

State of Aging in Allegheny County

November 28, 2023

Christopher Briem

Program in Urban and Regional Analysis

University Center for Social and Urban Research

University of Pittsburgh

cbriem@pitt.edu

(412) 624-3791

State of Aging, Disability, and Family Caregiving in Allegheny County

December 2022

Prepared by

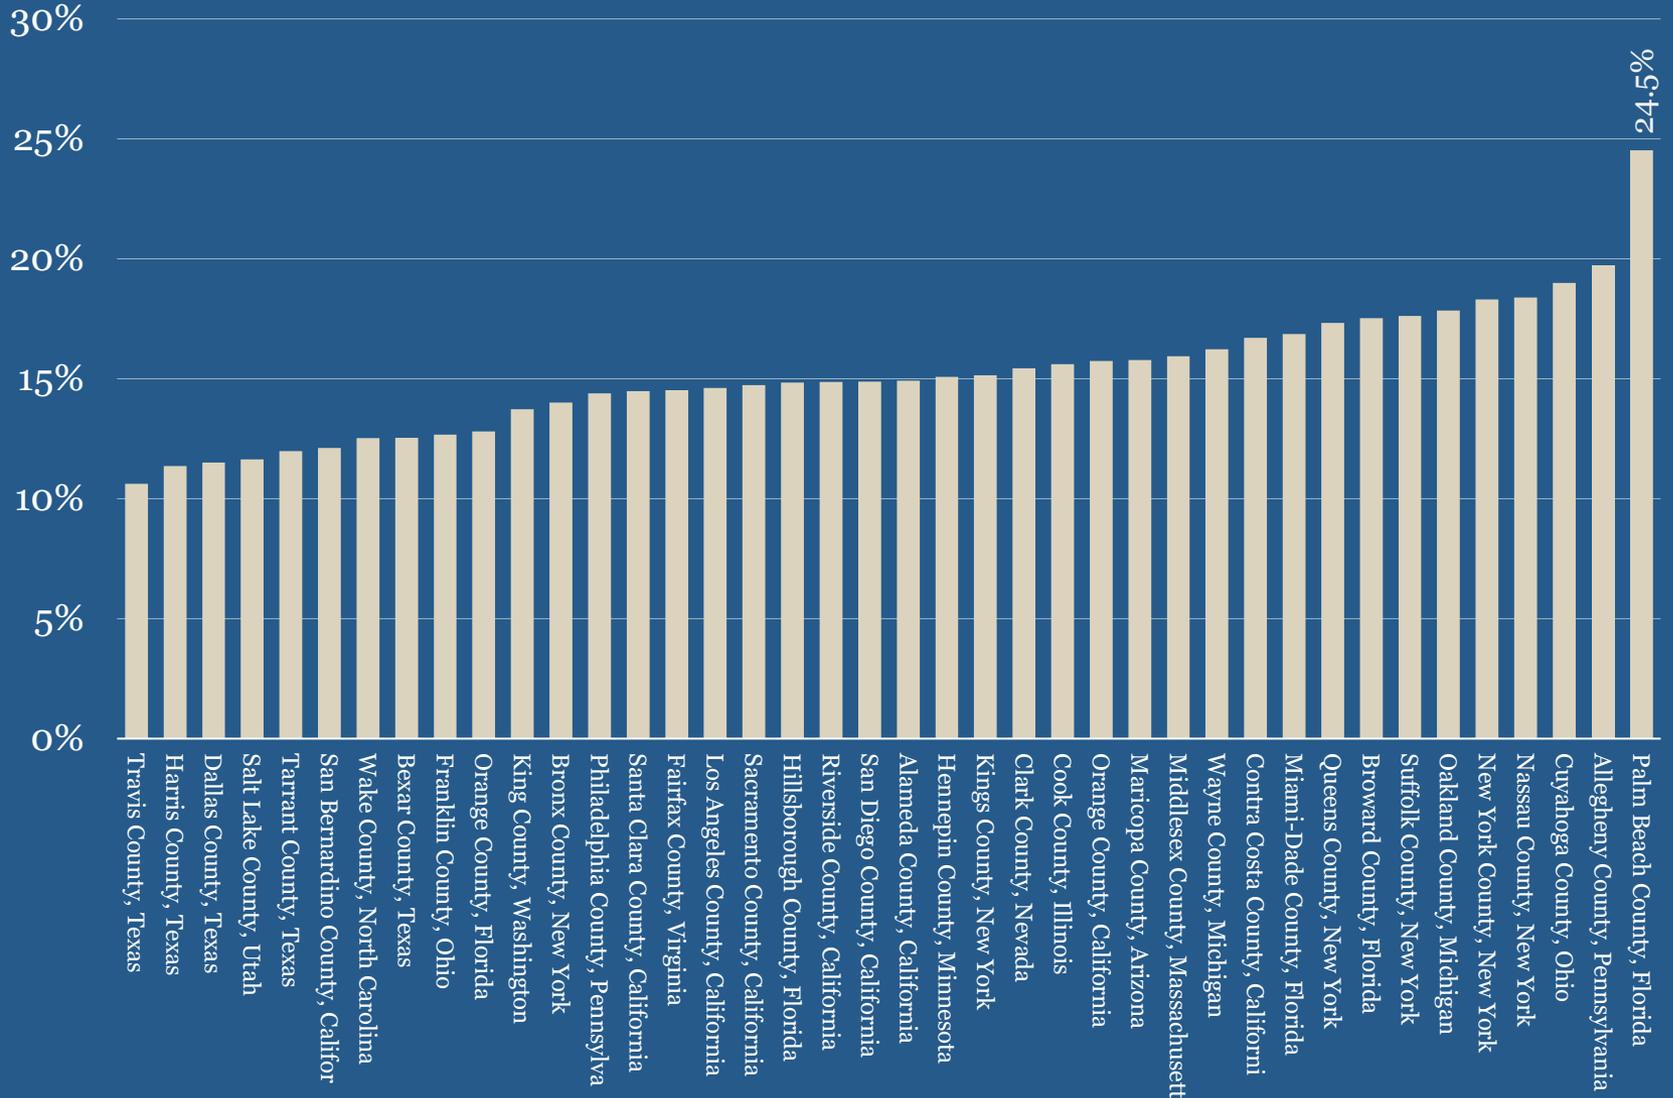

Scott R. Beach, PhD
University Center for Social and
Urban Research
National Rehabilitation Research
& Training Center on Family Support

Christopher Briem, MPA
Janet Schlarb, MS
University Center for Social and
Urban Research

Everette James, JD, MBA
Meredith Hughes, JD, MPH
Health Policy Institute

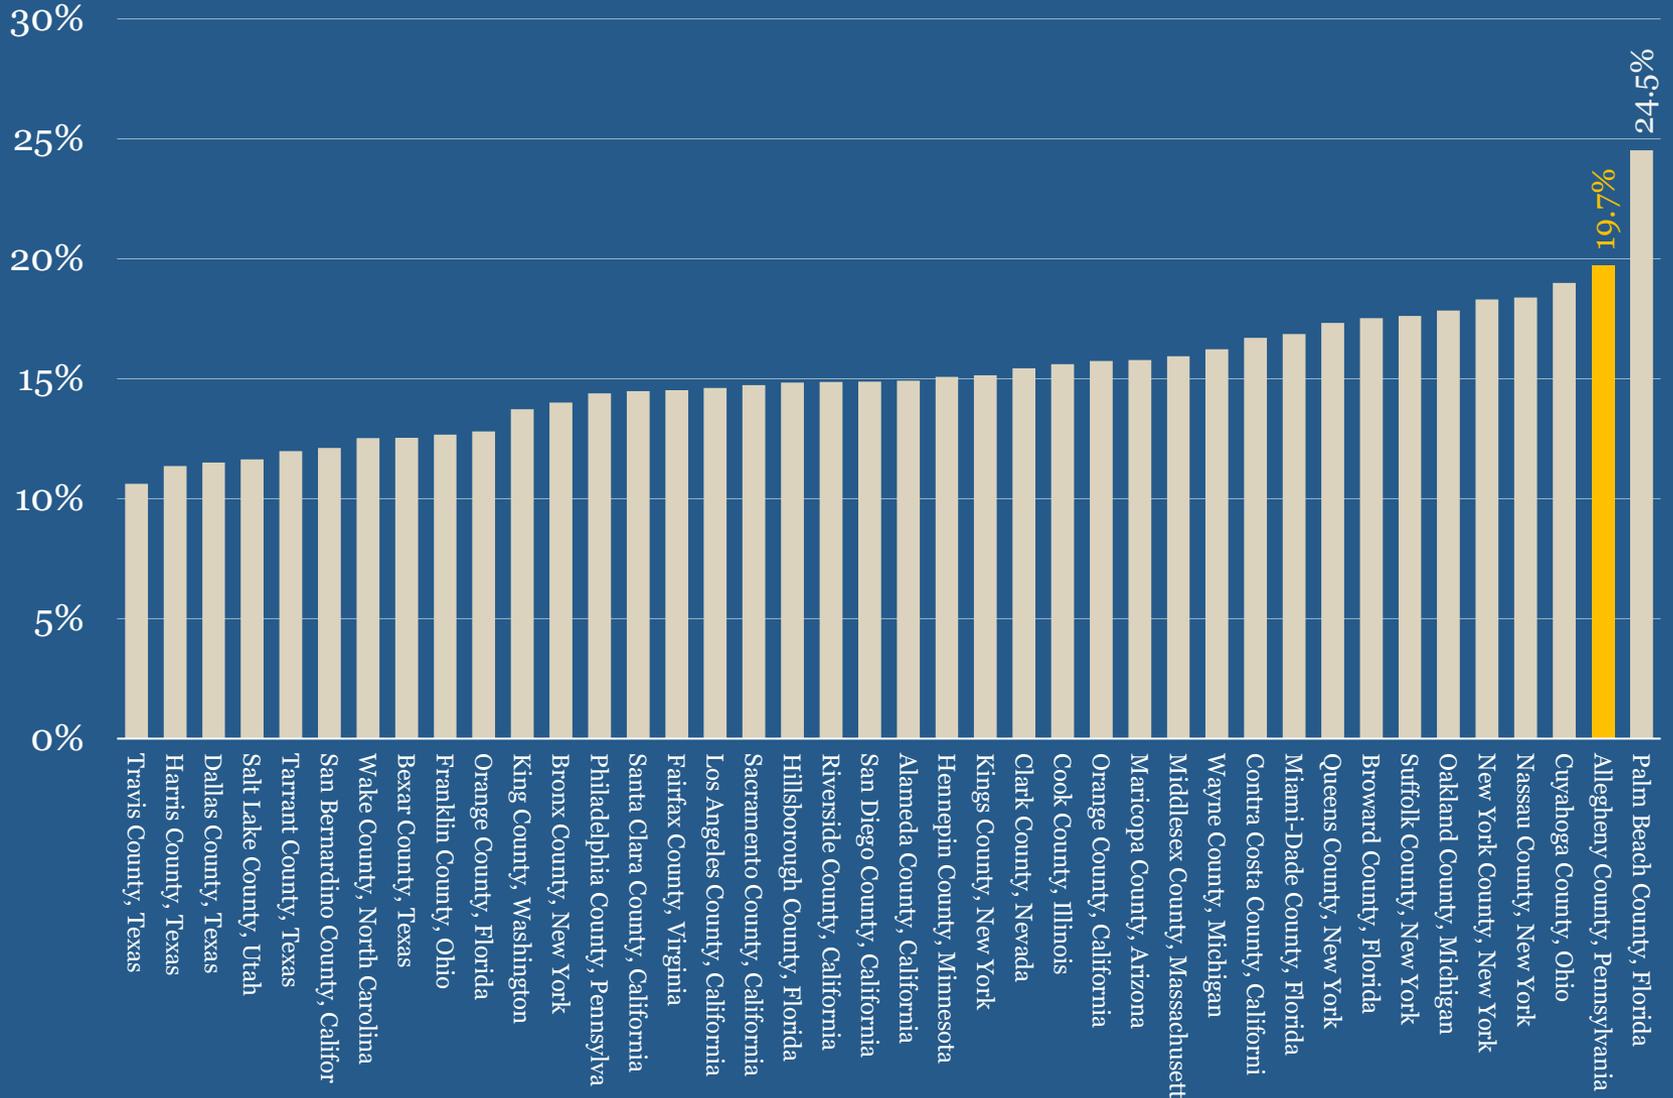

Allegheny County remains one of the oldest large counties in the US

Percentage of Population Age 65 and Over (2021)

Allegheny County remains one of the oldest large counties in the US

Percentage of Population Age 65 and Over (2021)

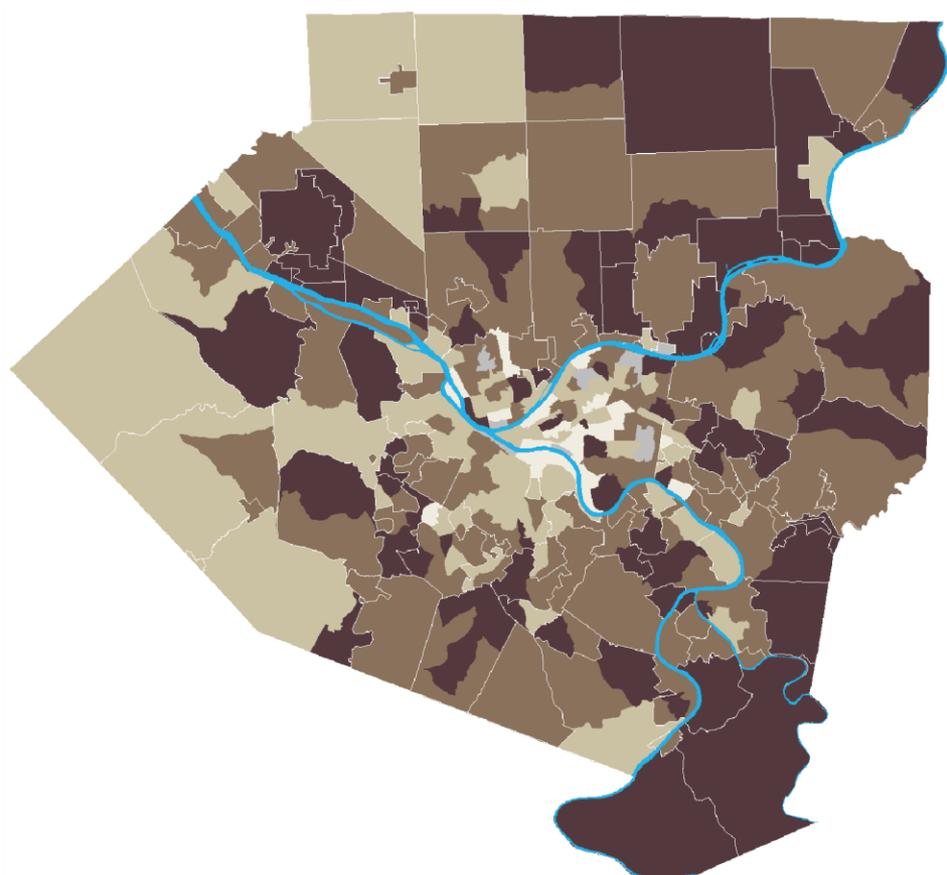

Percentage of Population Age 55 and Over - Allegheny County Municipalities

1970

2016-2020

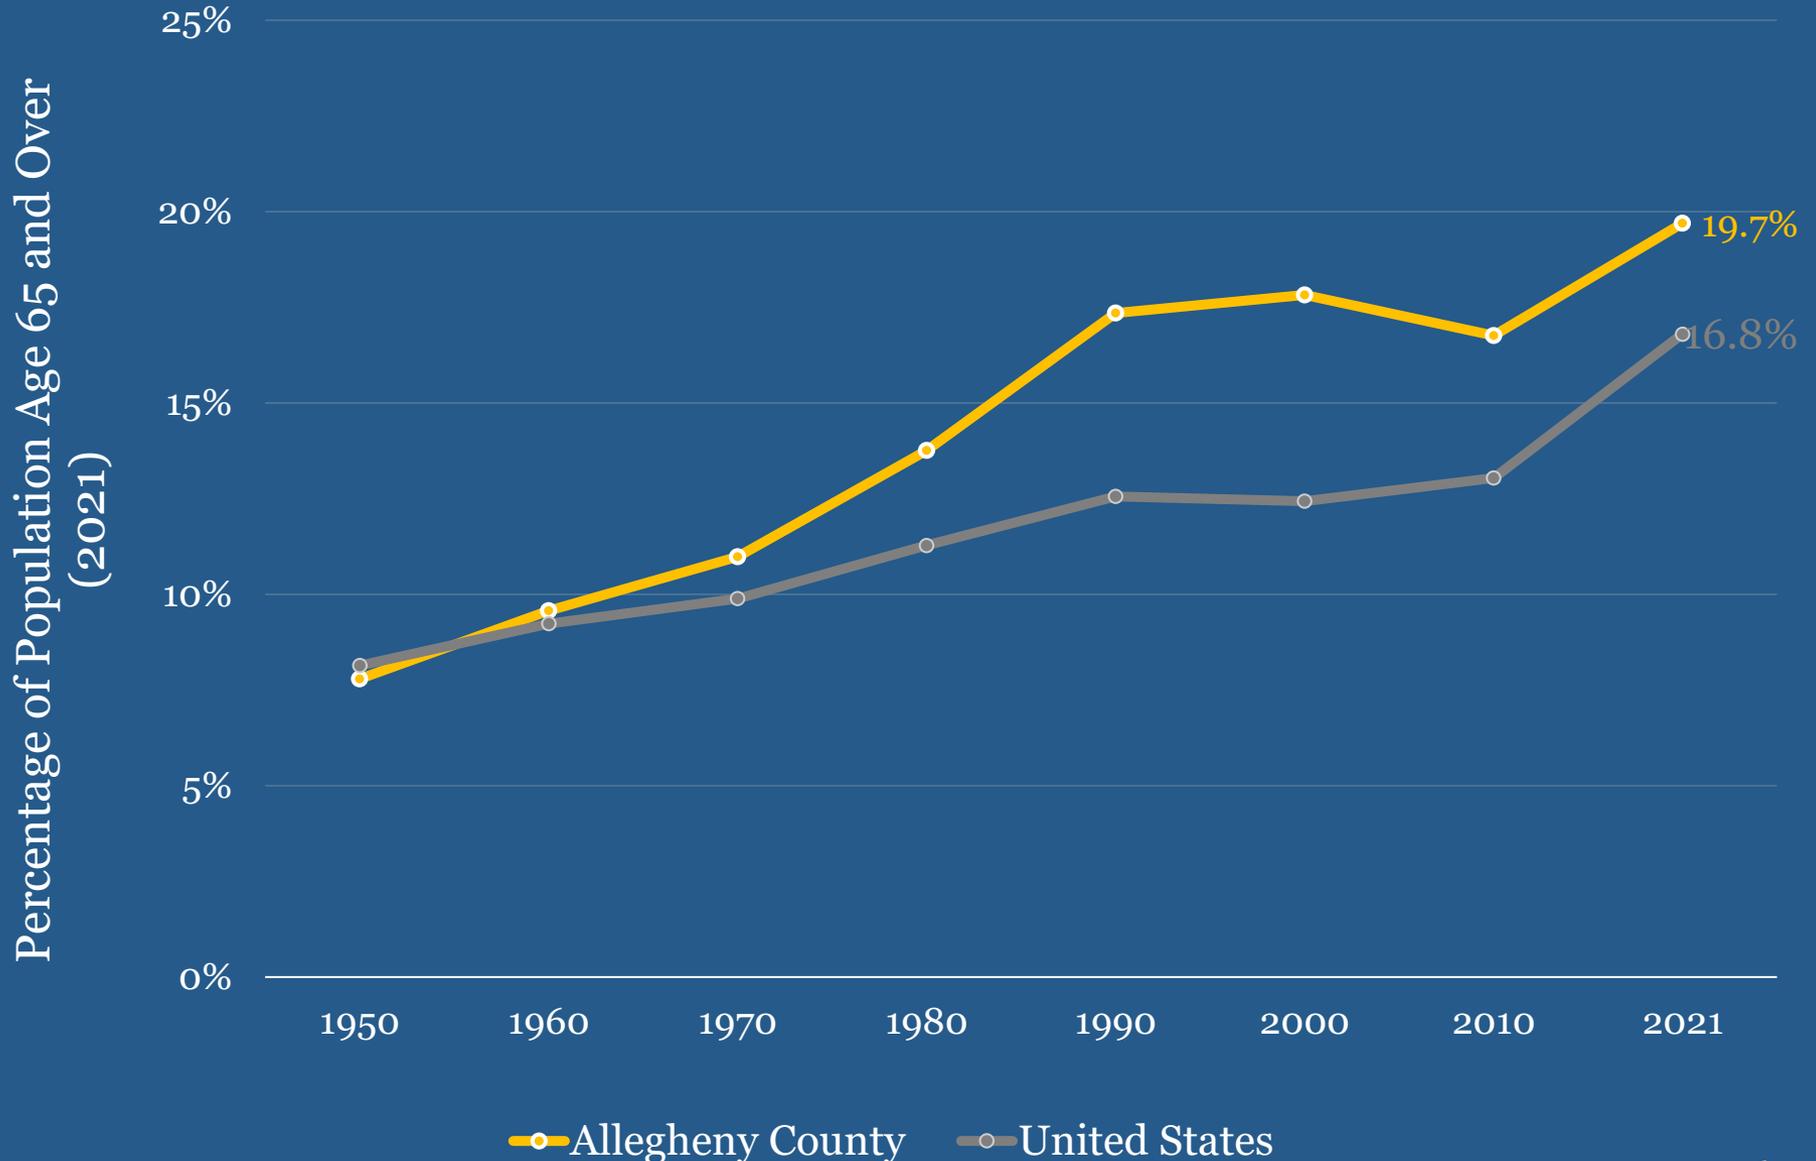

Under 20%

20-30%

30-40%

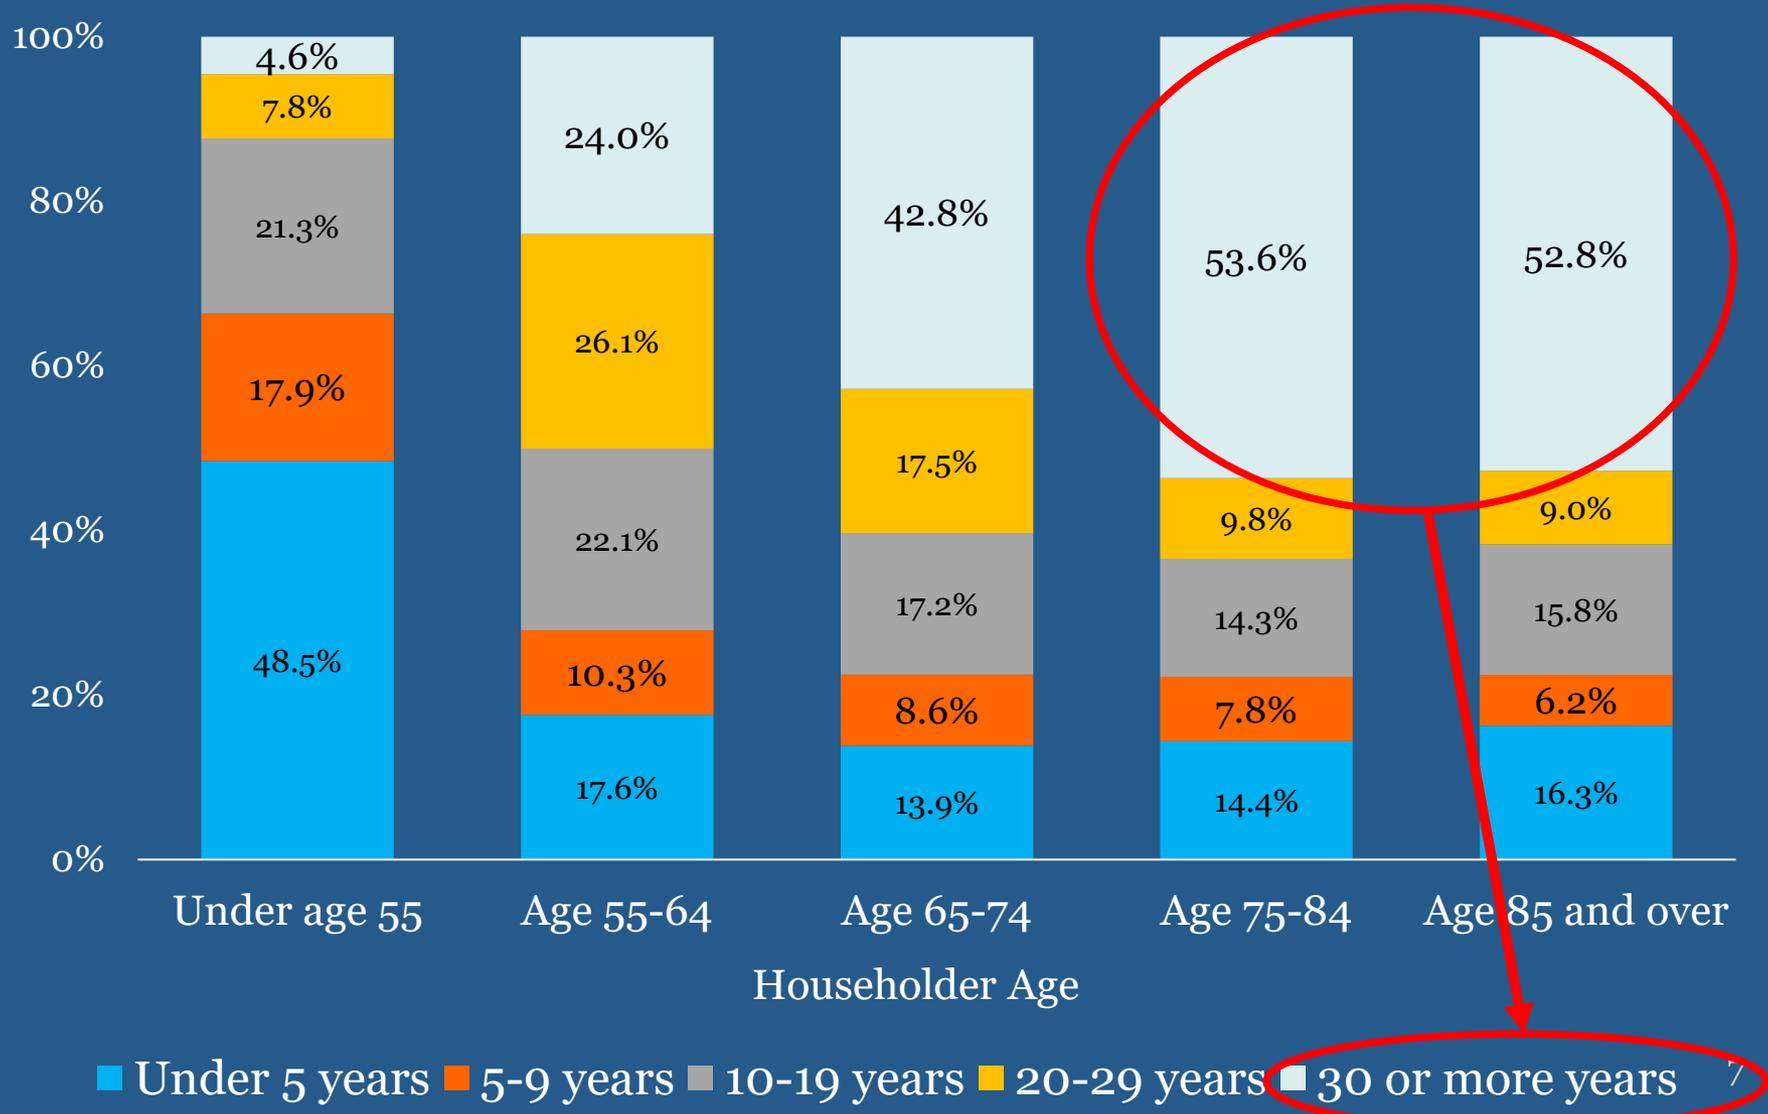

Over 40%

When did Allegheny County become so old?

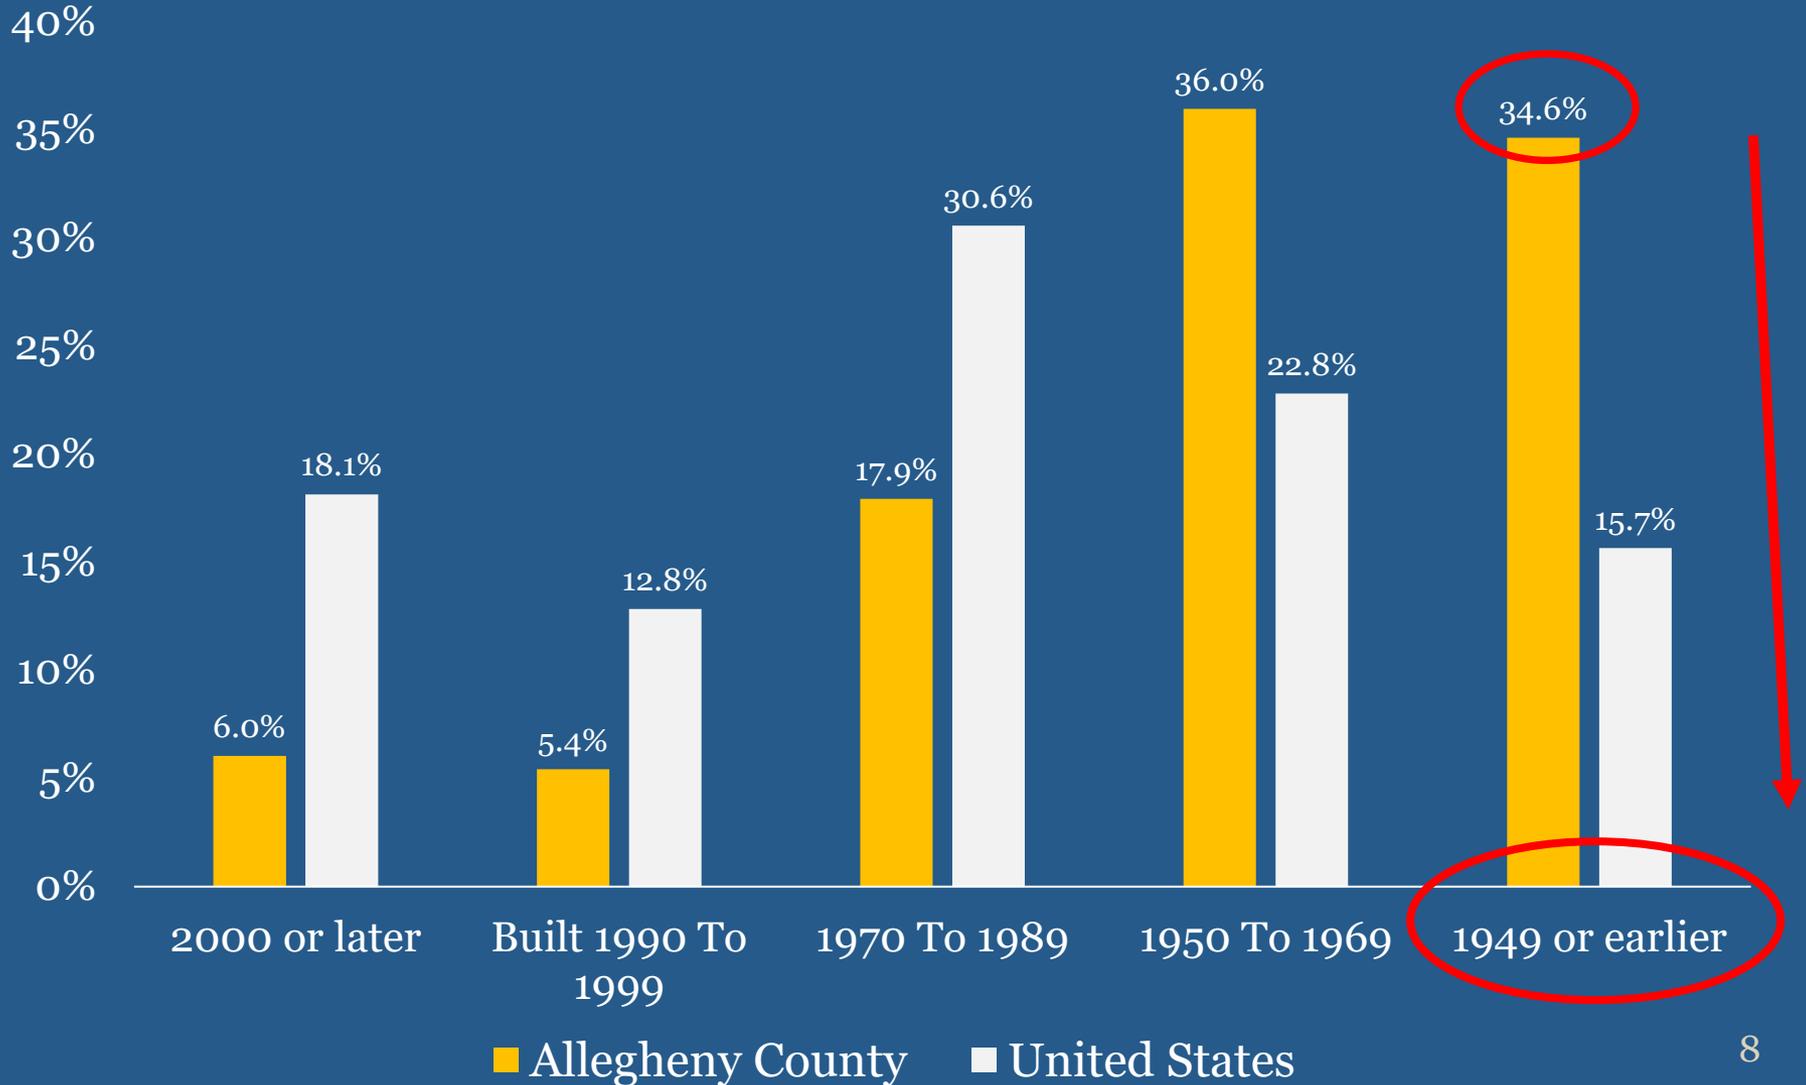

A population that has aged in place

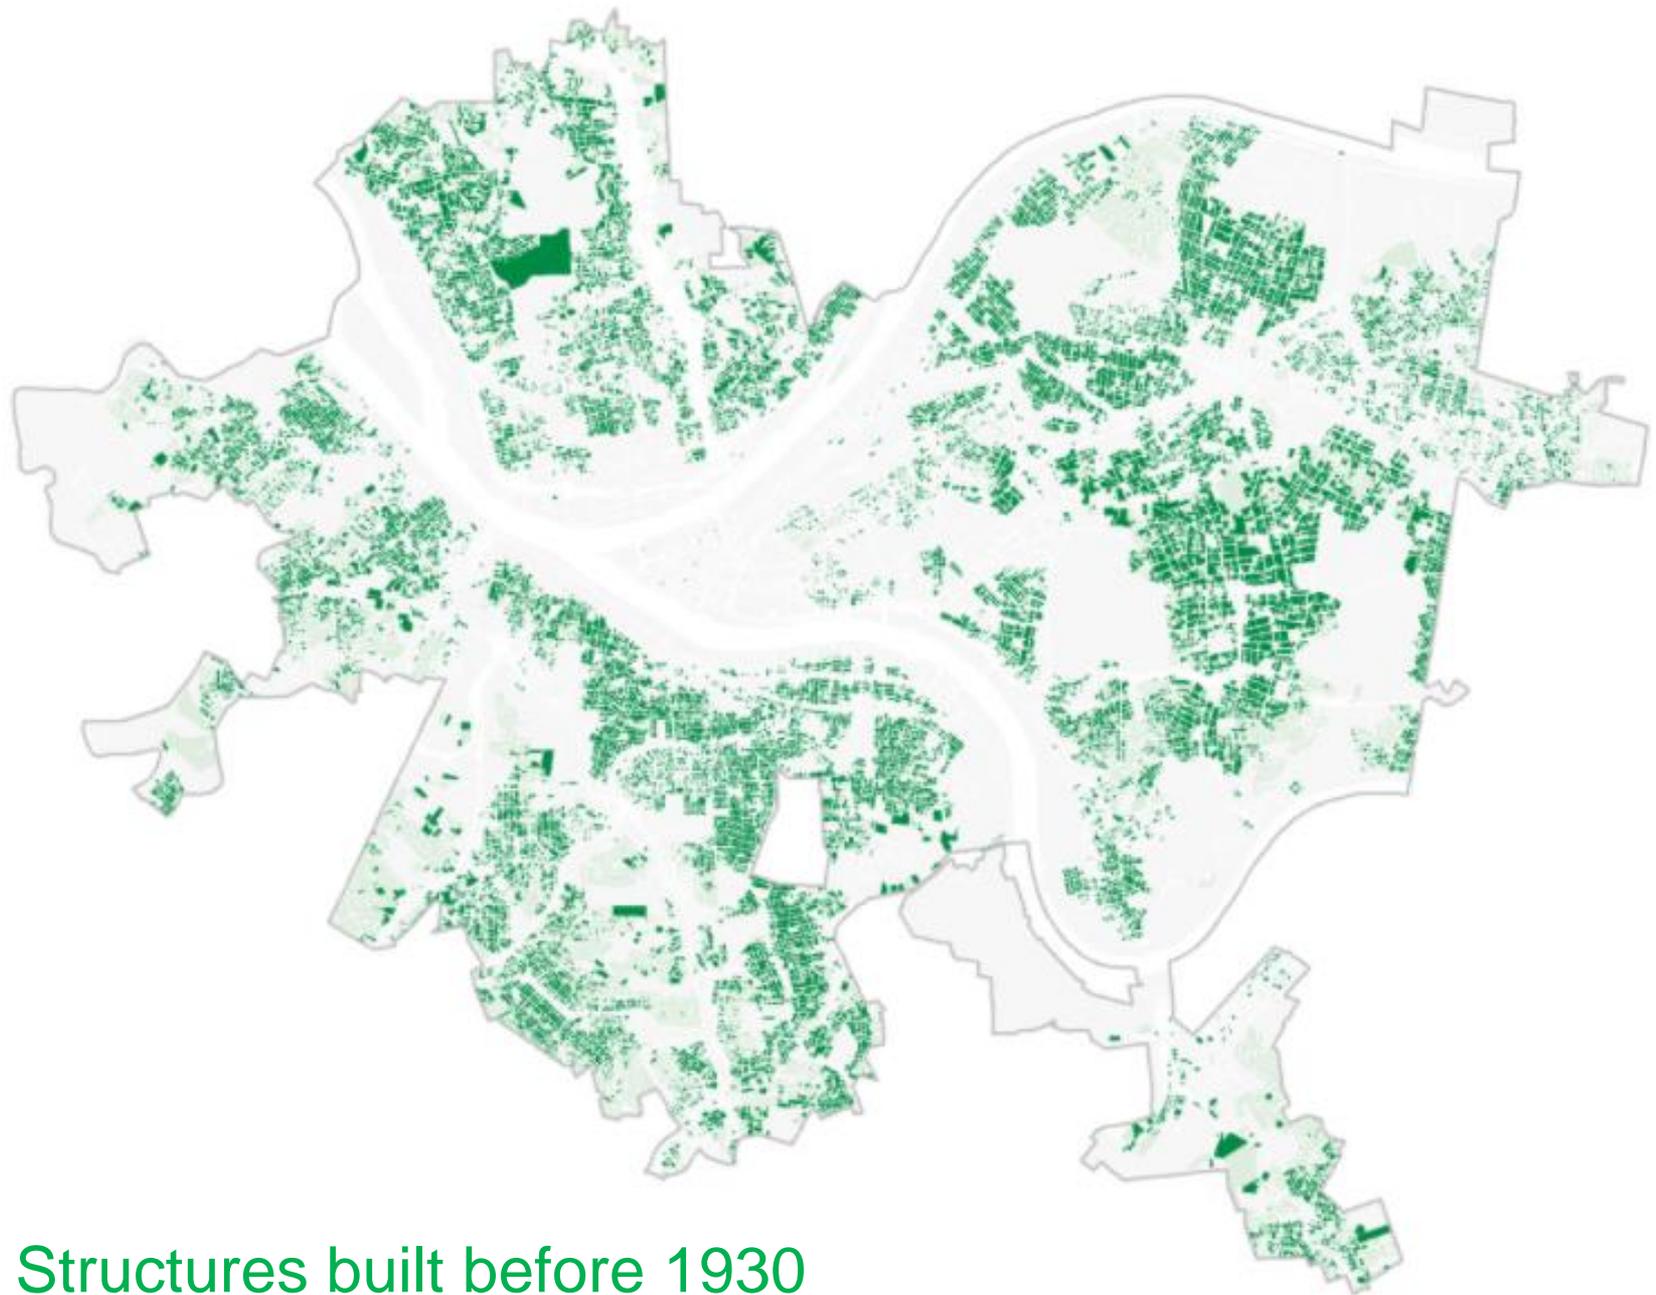

Length of time householders have lived in their current place of residence

Older Adults → Older Housing

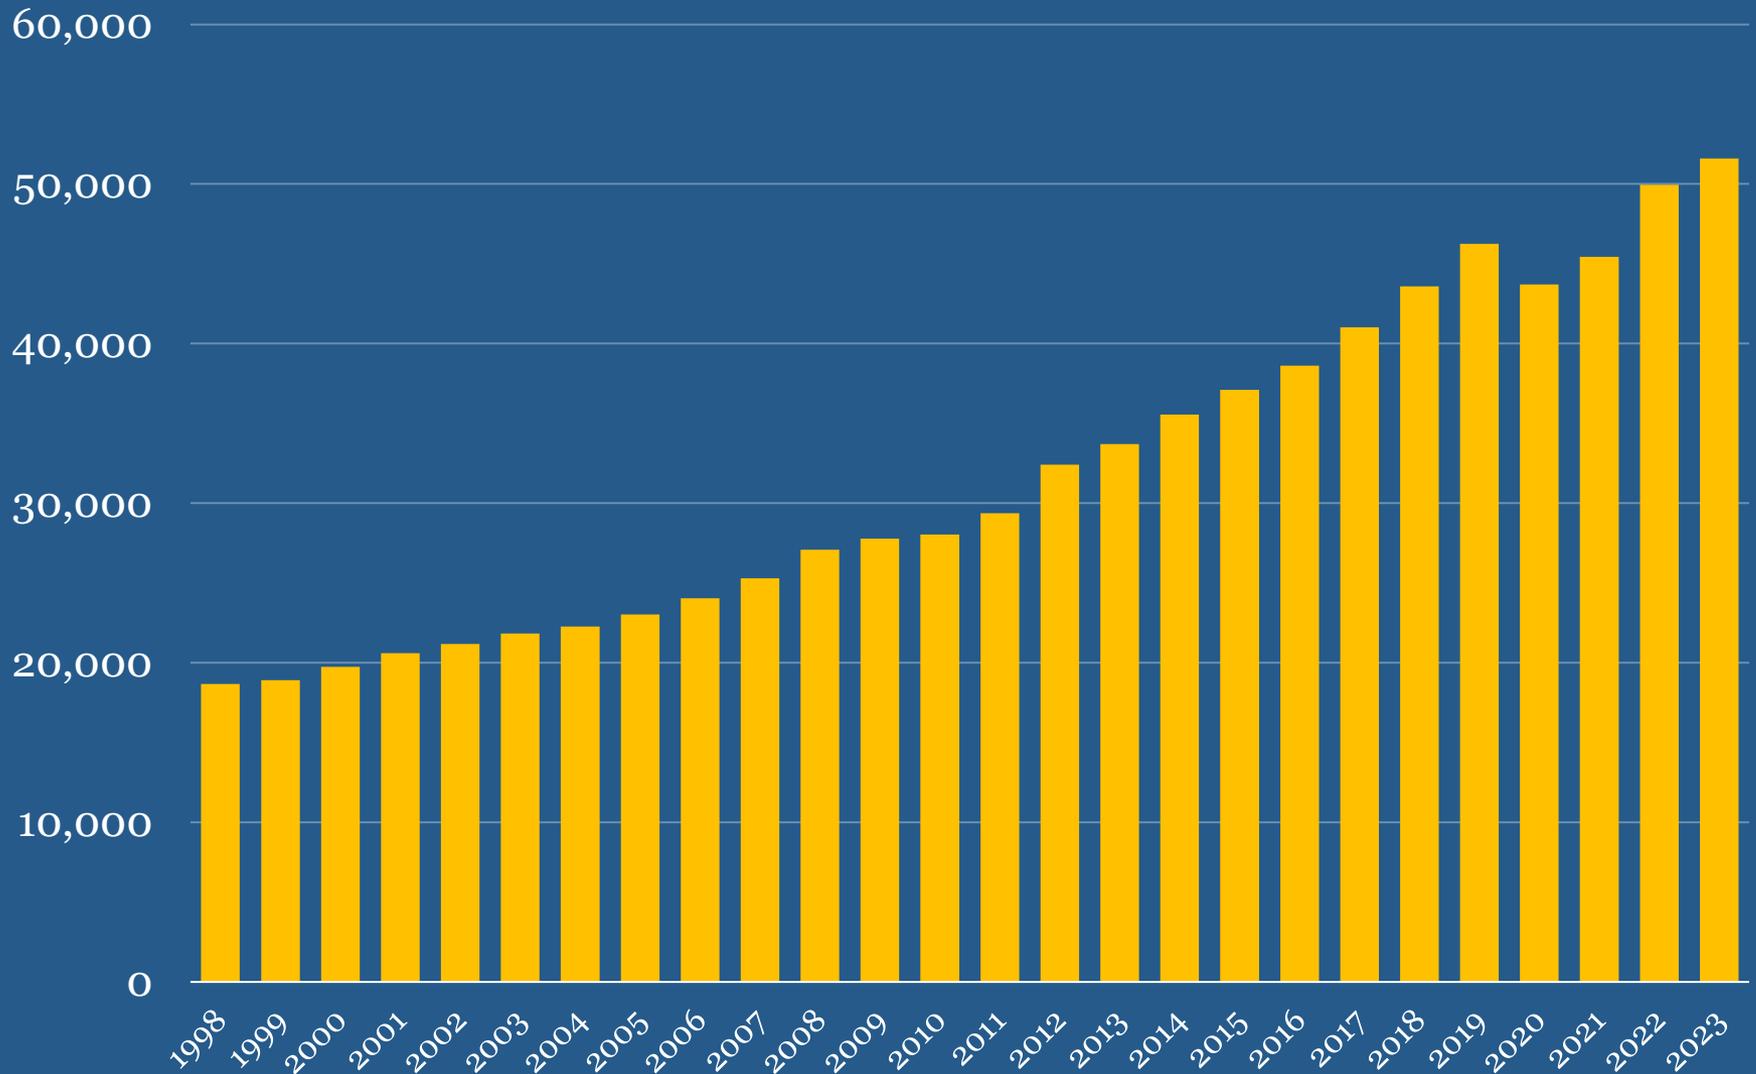

Year structure built of owner-occupied housing, householders age 65 and over

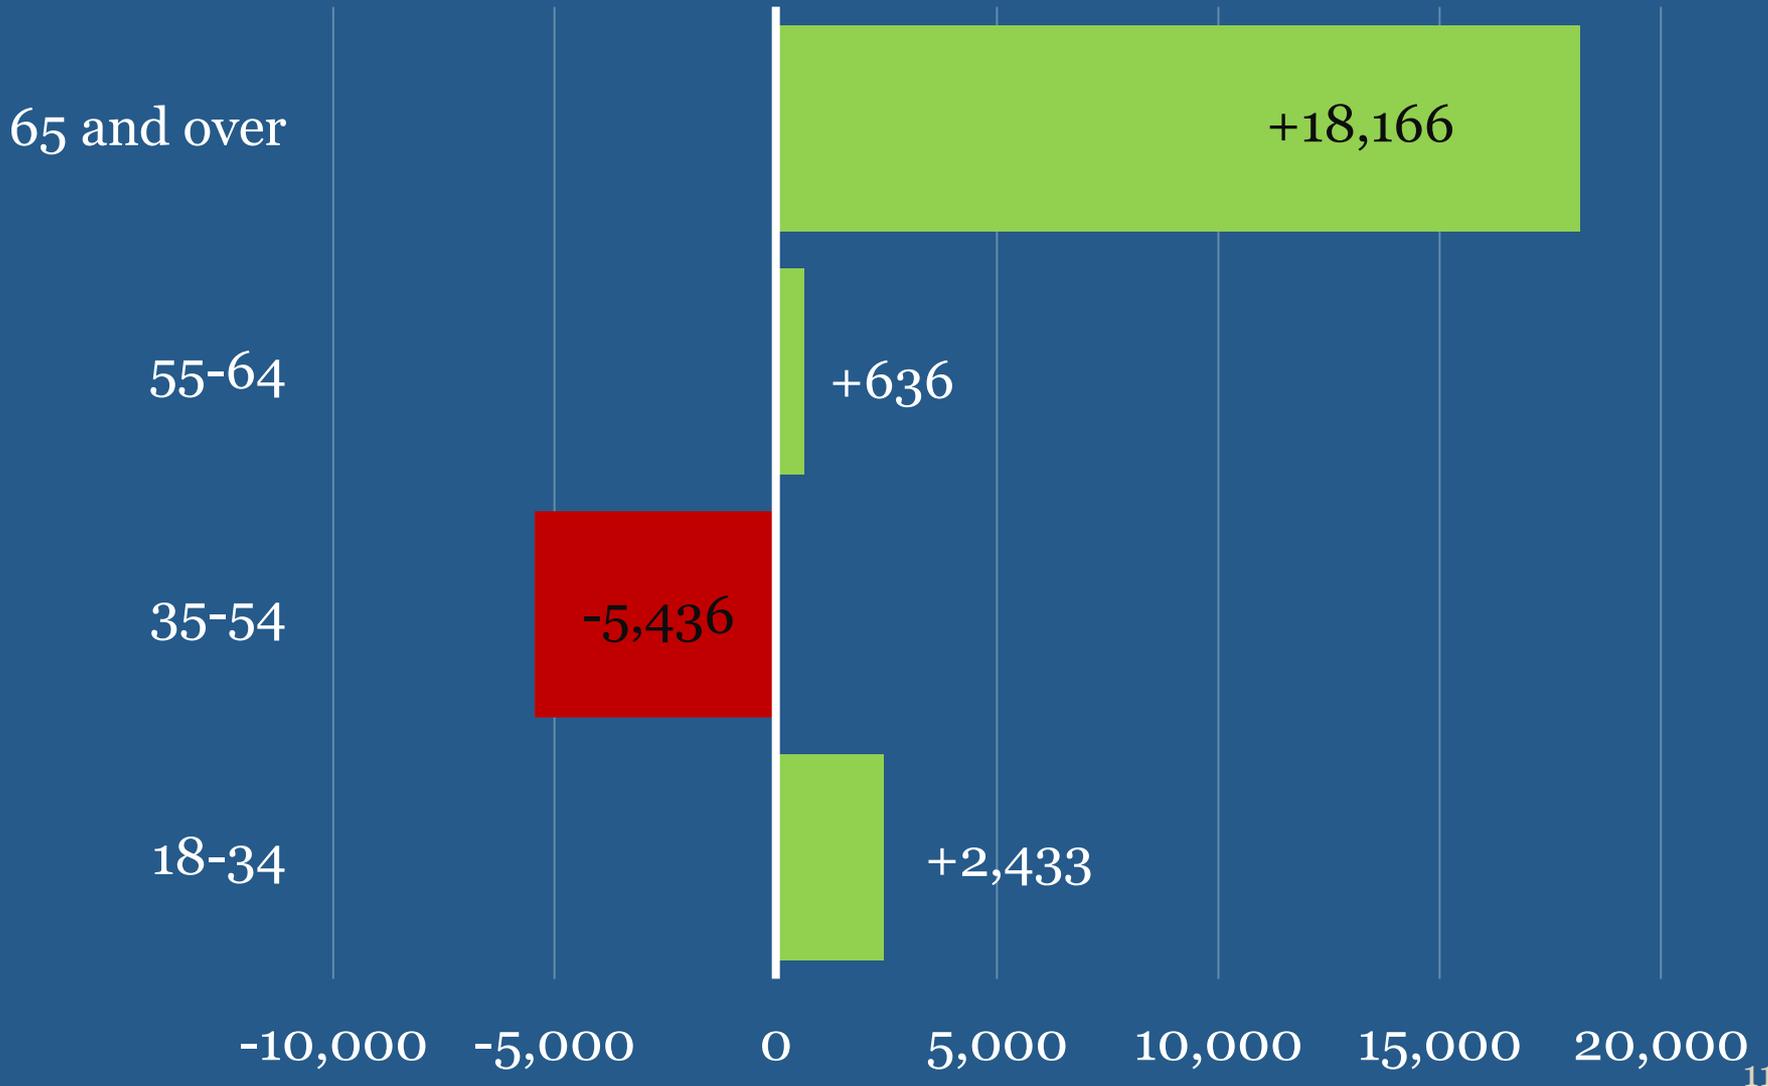

Structures built before 1930

Older Workers (65+) in Allegheny County. 1998-2023

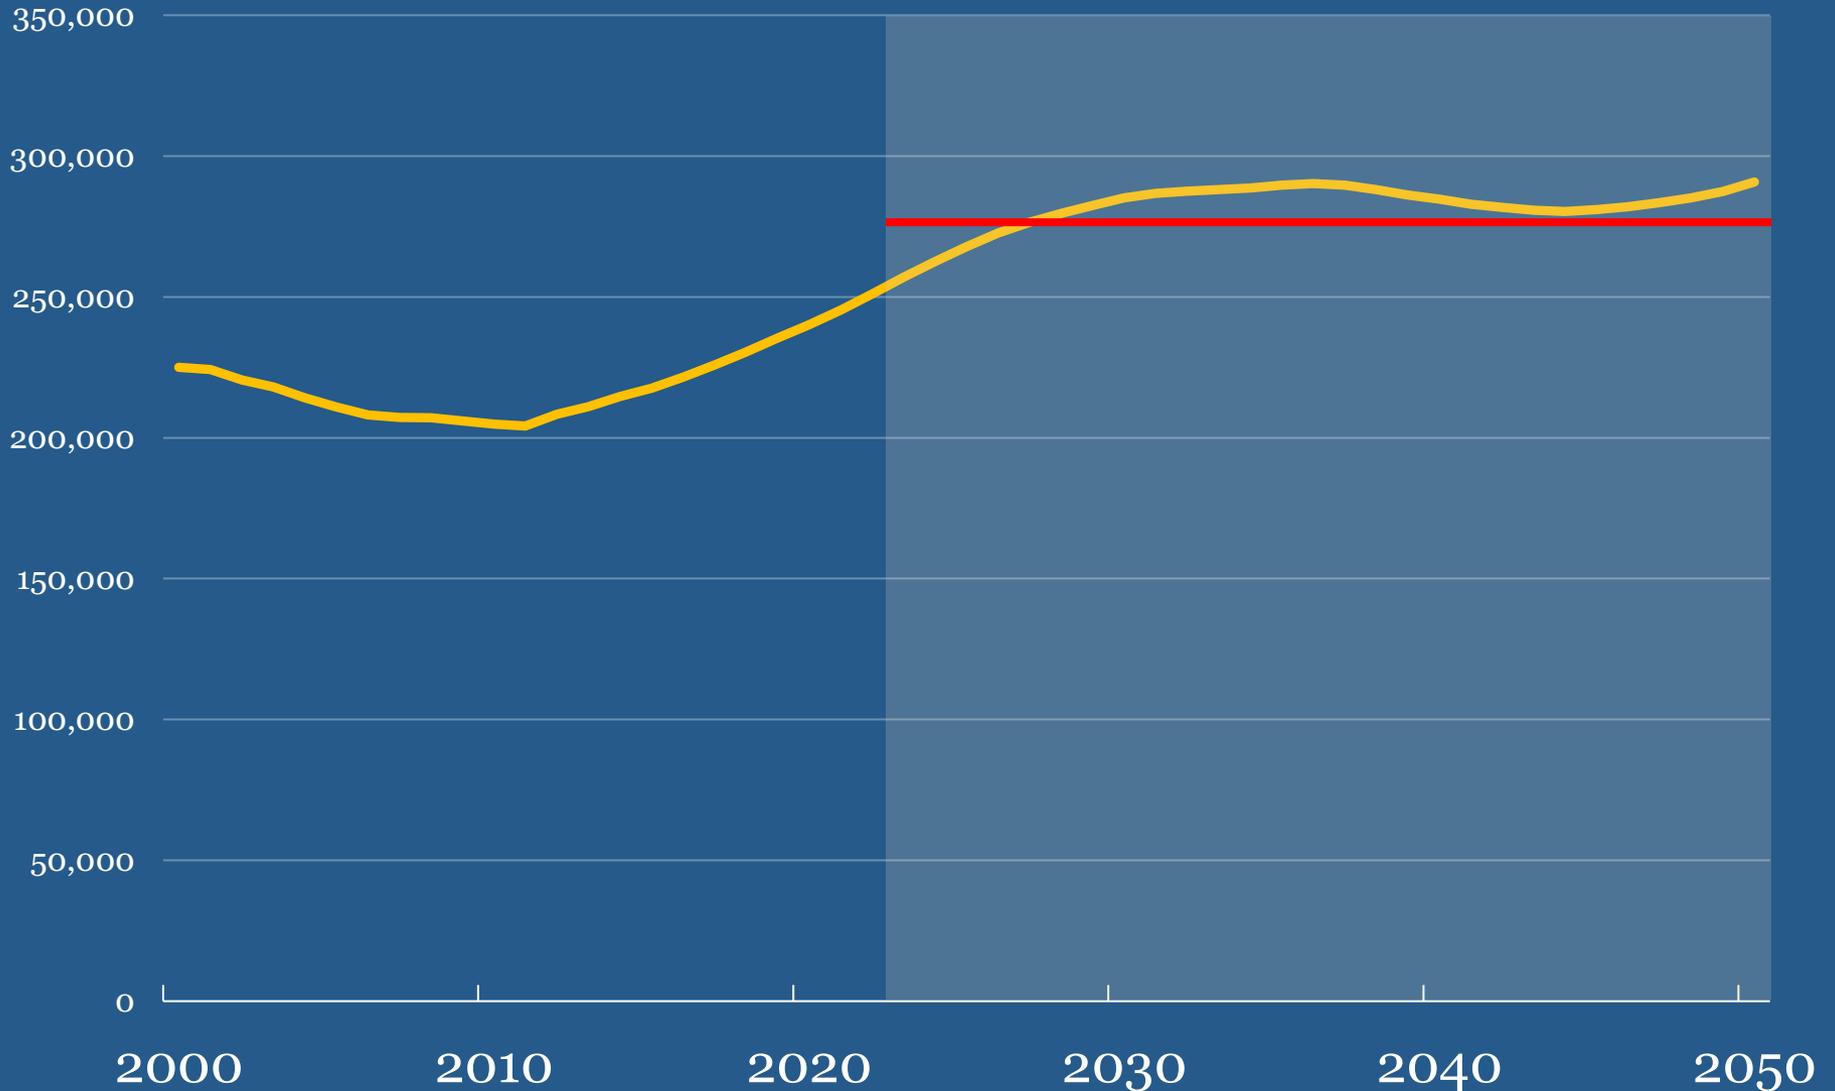

Change in Wage and Salary Workers by Age

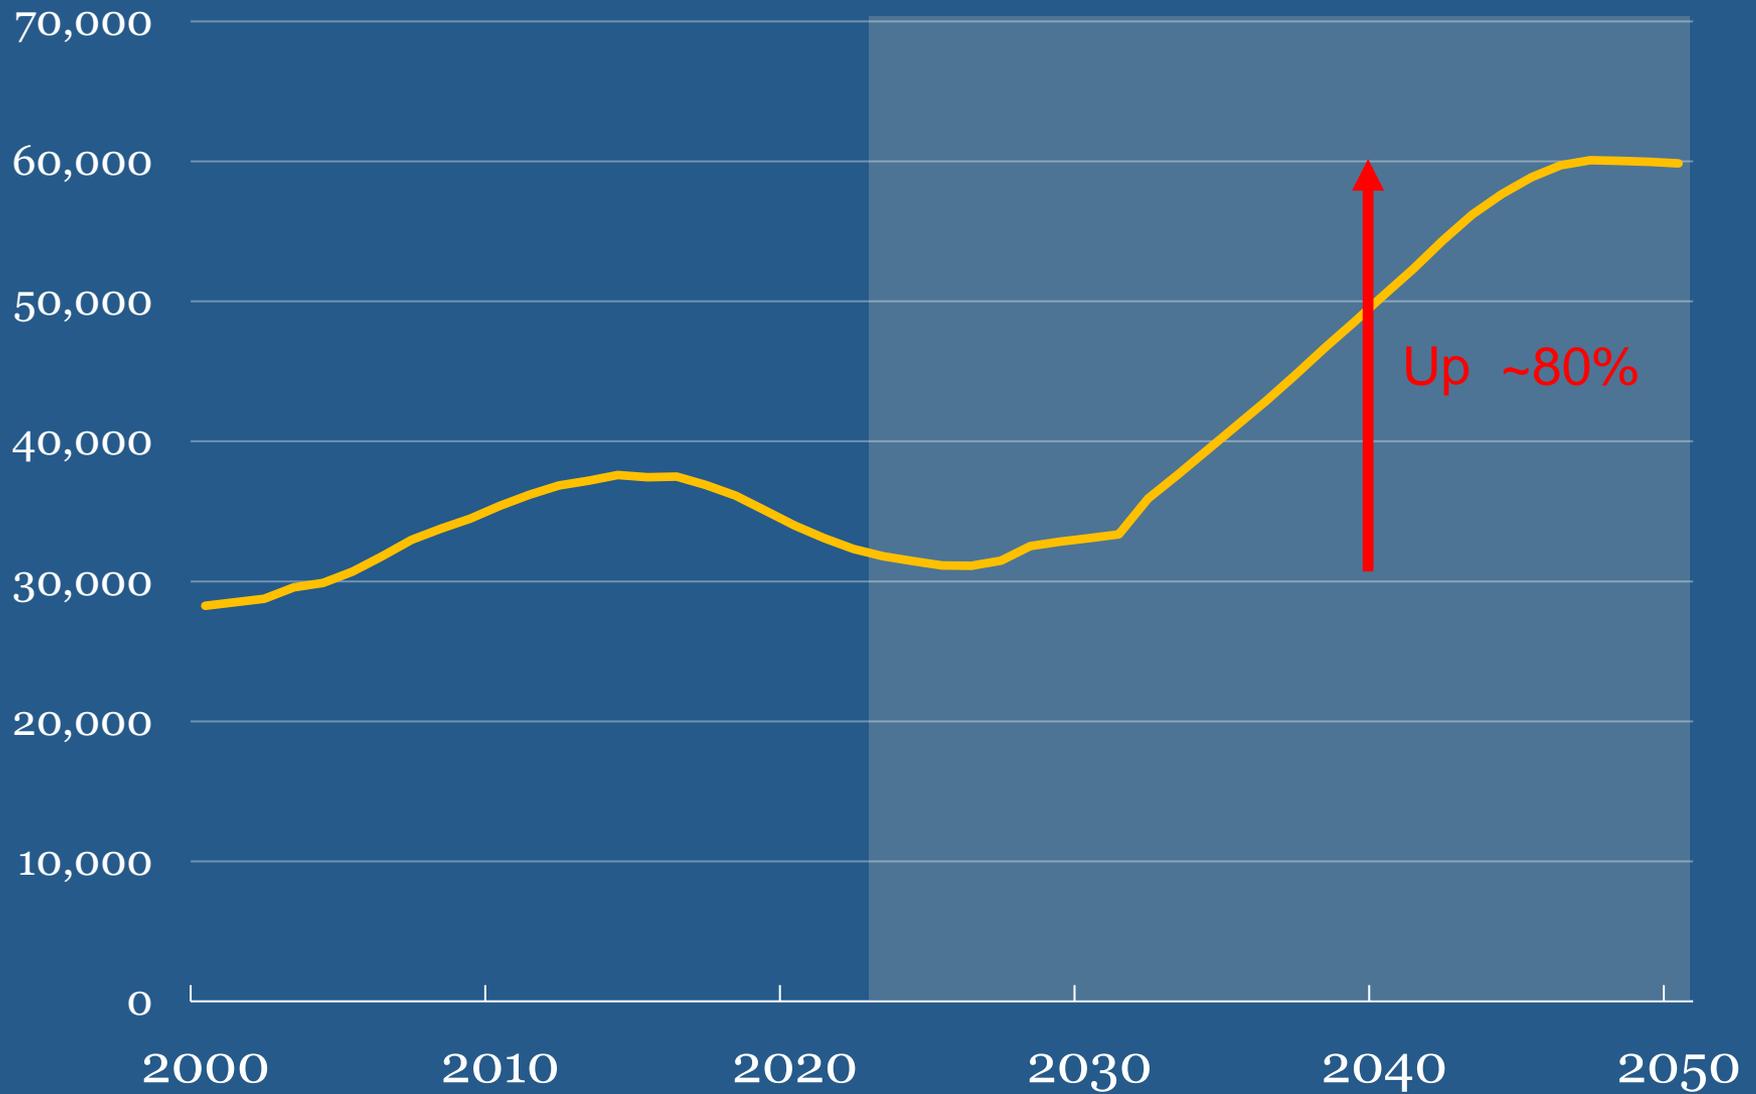

Allegheny County 2013-2023

Forecast: Population Age 65 and Over in Allegheny County

Forecast: Population Age 85 and Over in Allegheny County

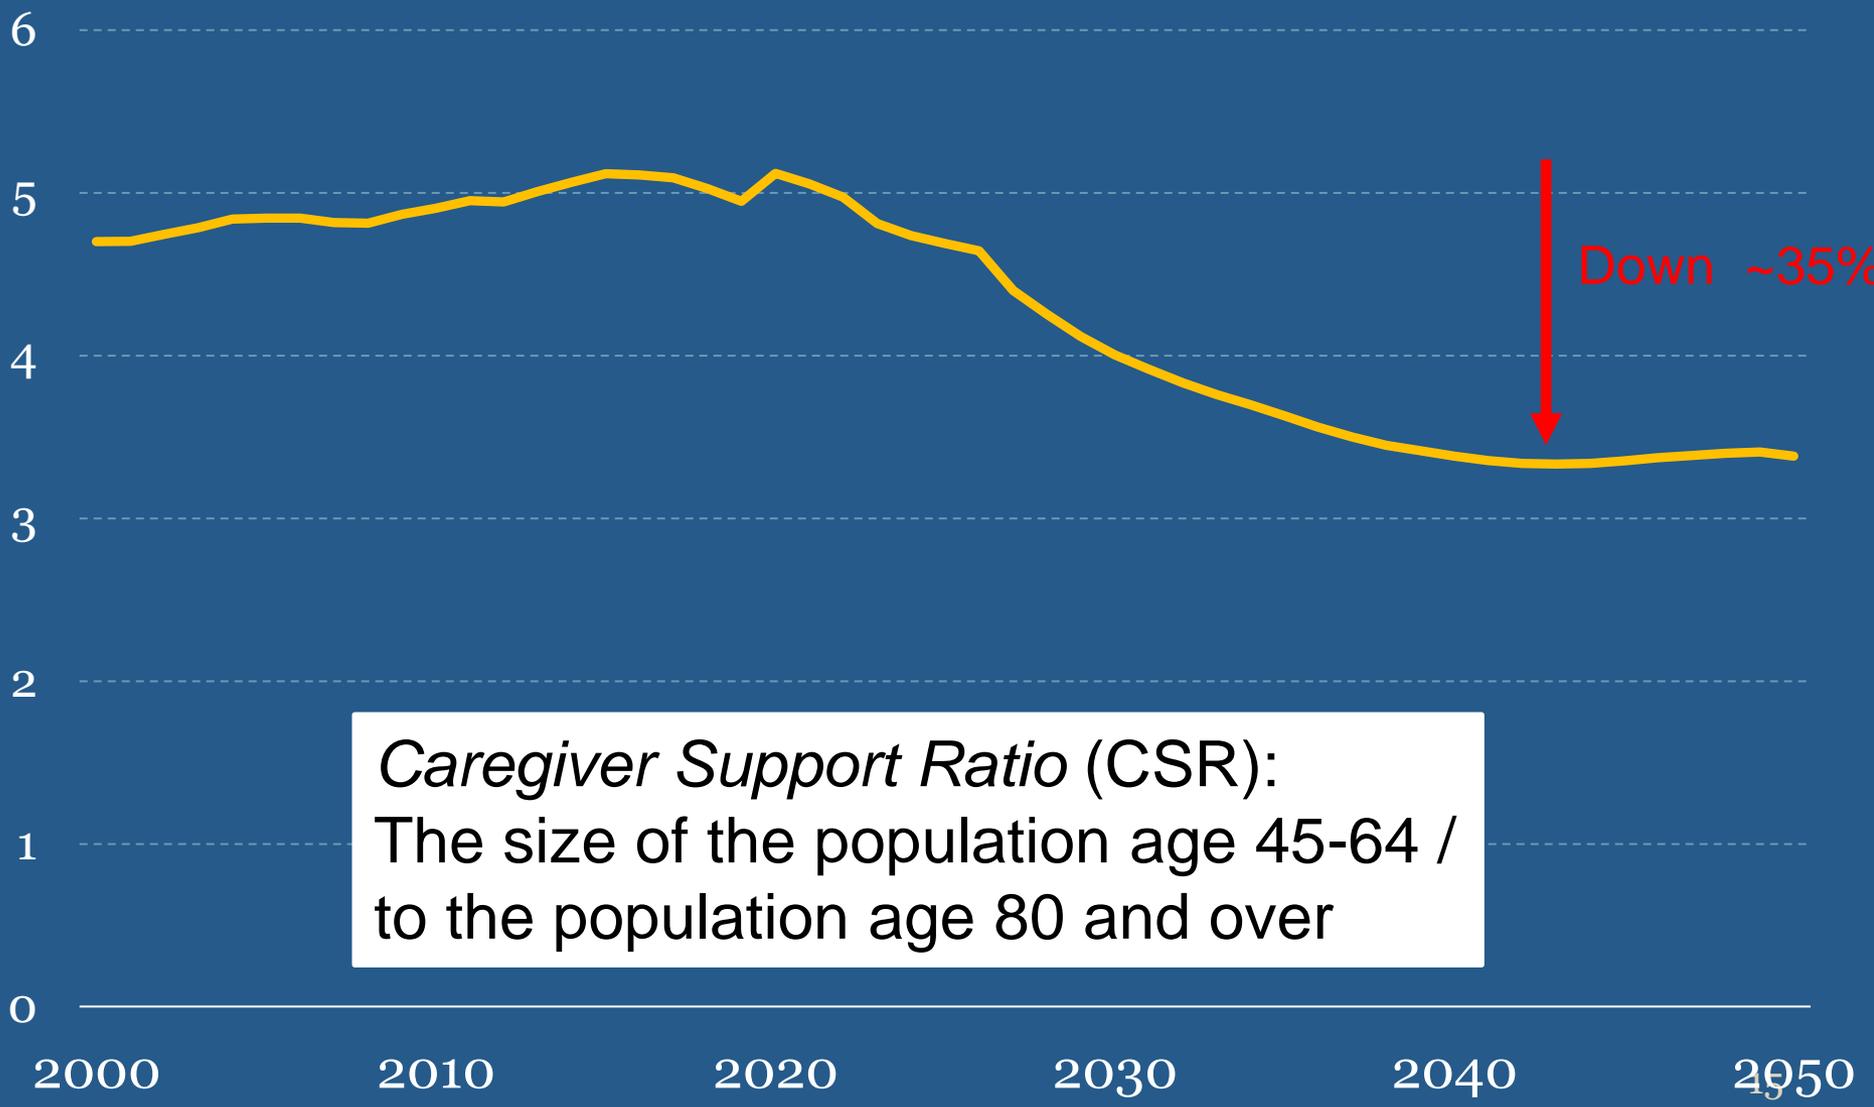

Baseline Forecast Summary

Allegheny County 2020-2050

	Population				Change over decade
	2020	2030	2040	2050	2020-30	2030-40	2040-50
Under Age 55	488,008	492,777	488,403	448,972	1.0%	-0.9%	-8.1%
Age 55-64	117,462	98,675	111,484	137,530	-16.0%	13.0%	23.4%
Age 65 and over	49,339	71,674	65,409	73,382	45.3%	-8.7%	12.2%
Age 65-74	39,427	53,912	44,199	53,333	36.7%	-18.0%	20.7%
Age 75 & over	9,912	17,762	21,210	20,048	79.2%	19.4%	-5.5%

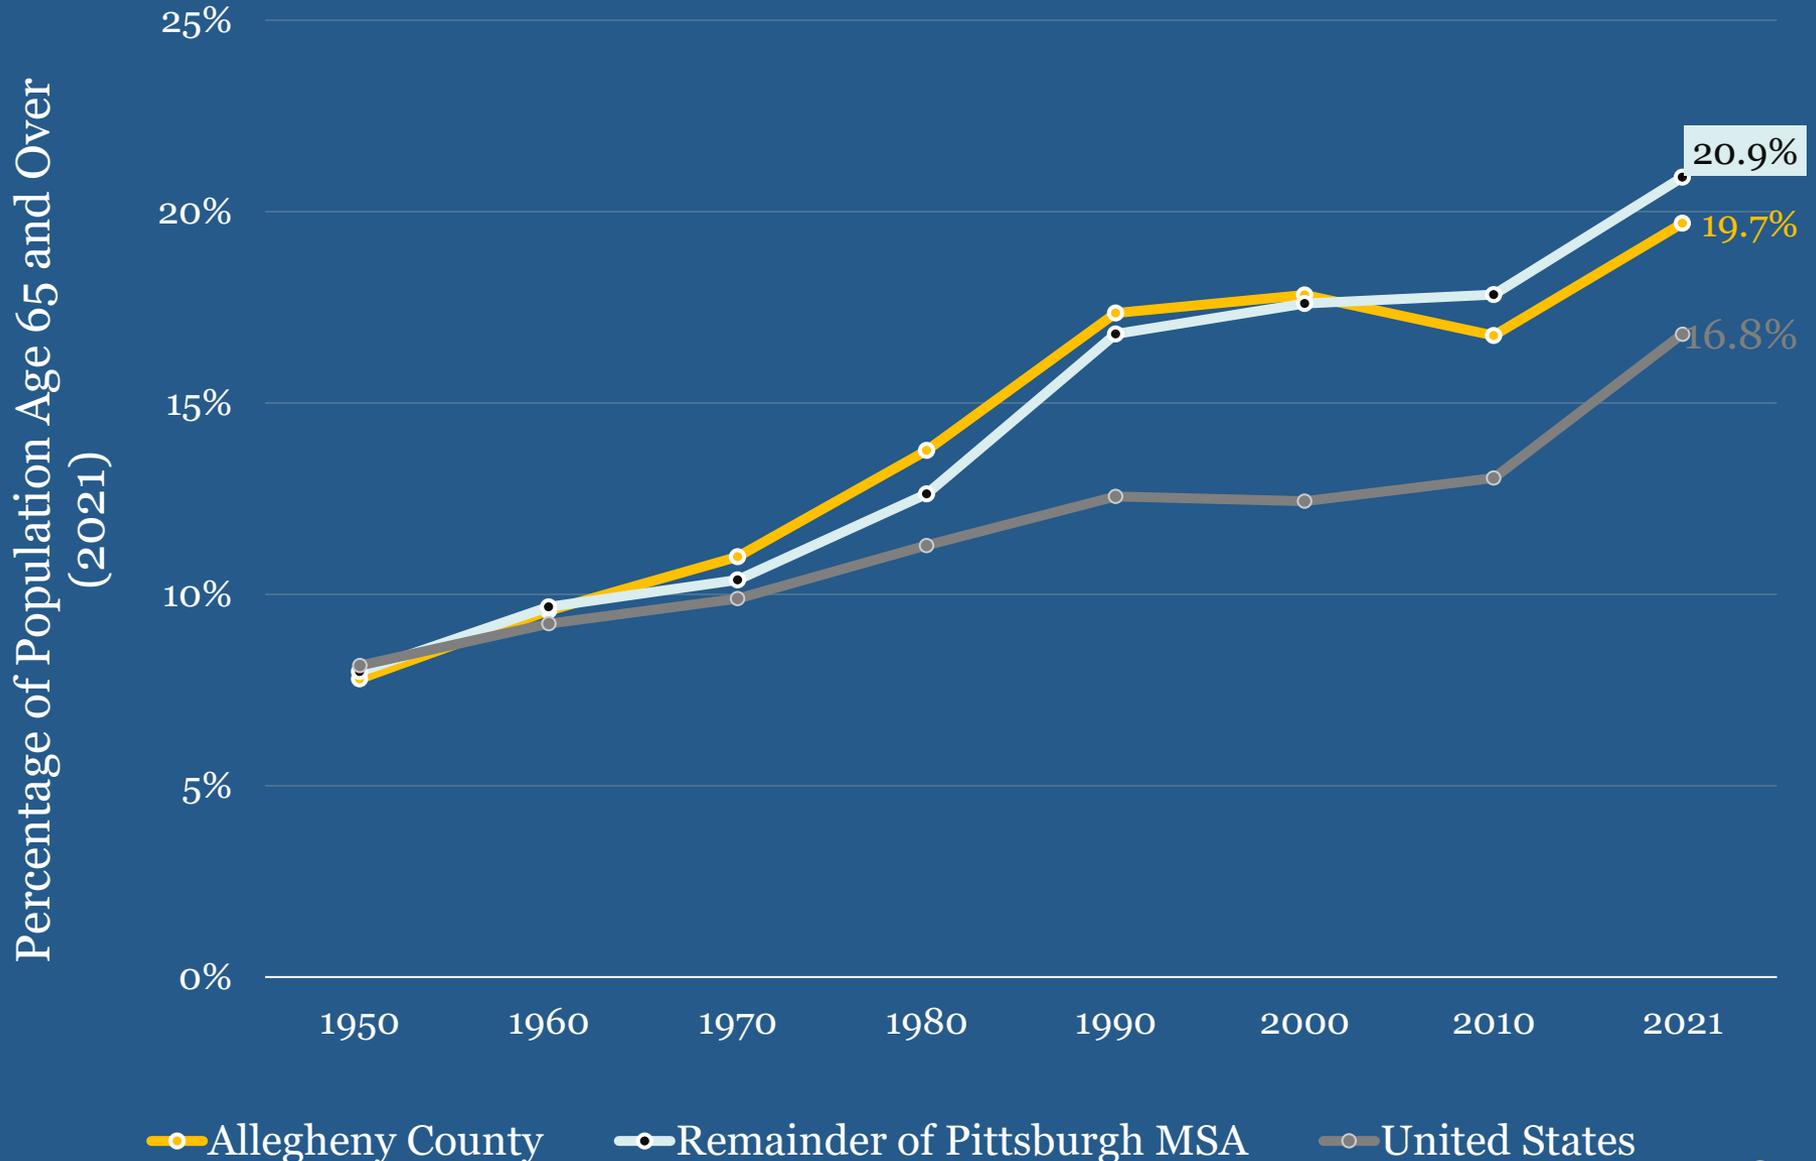

Historic and Projected Caregiver Support Ratio Allegheny County 2000 to 2050

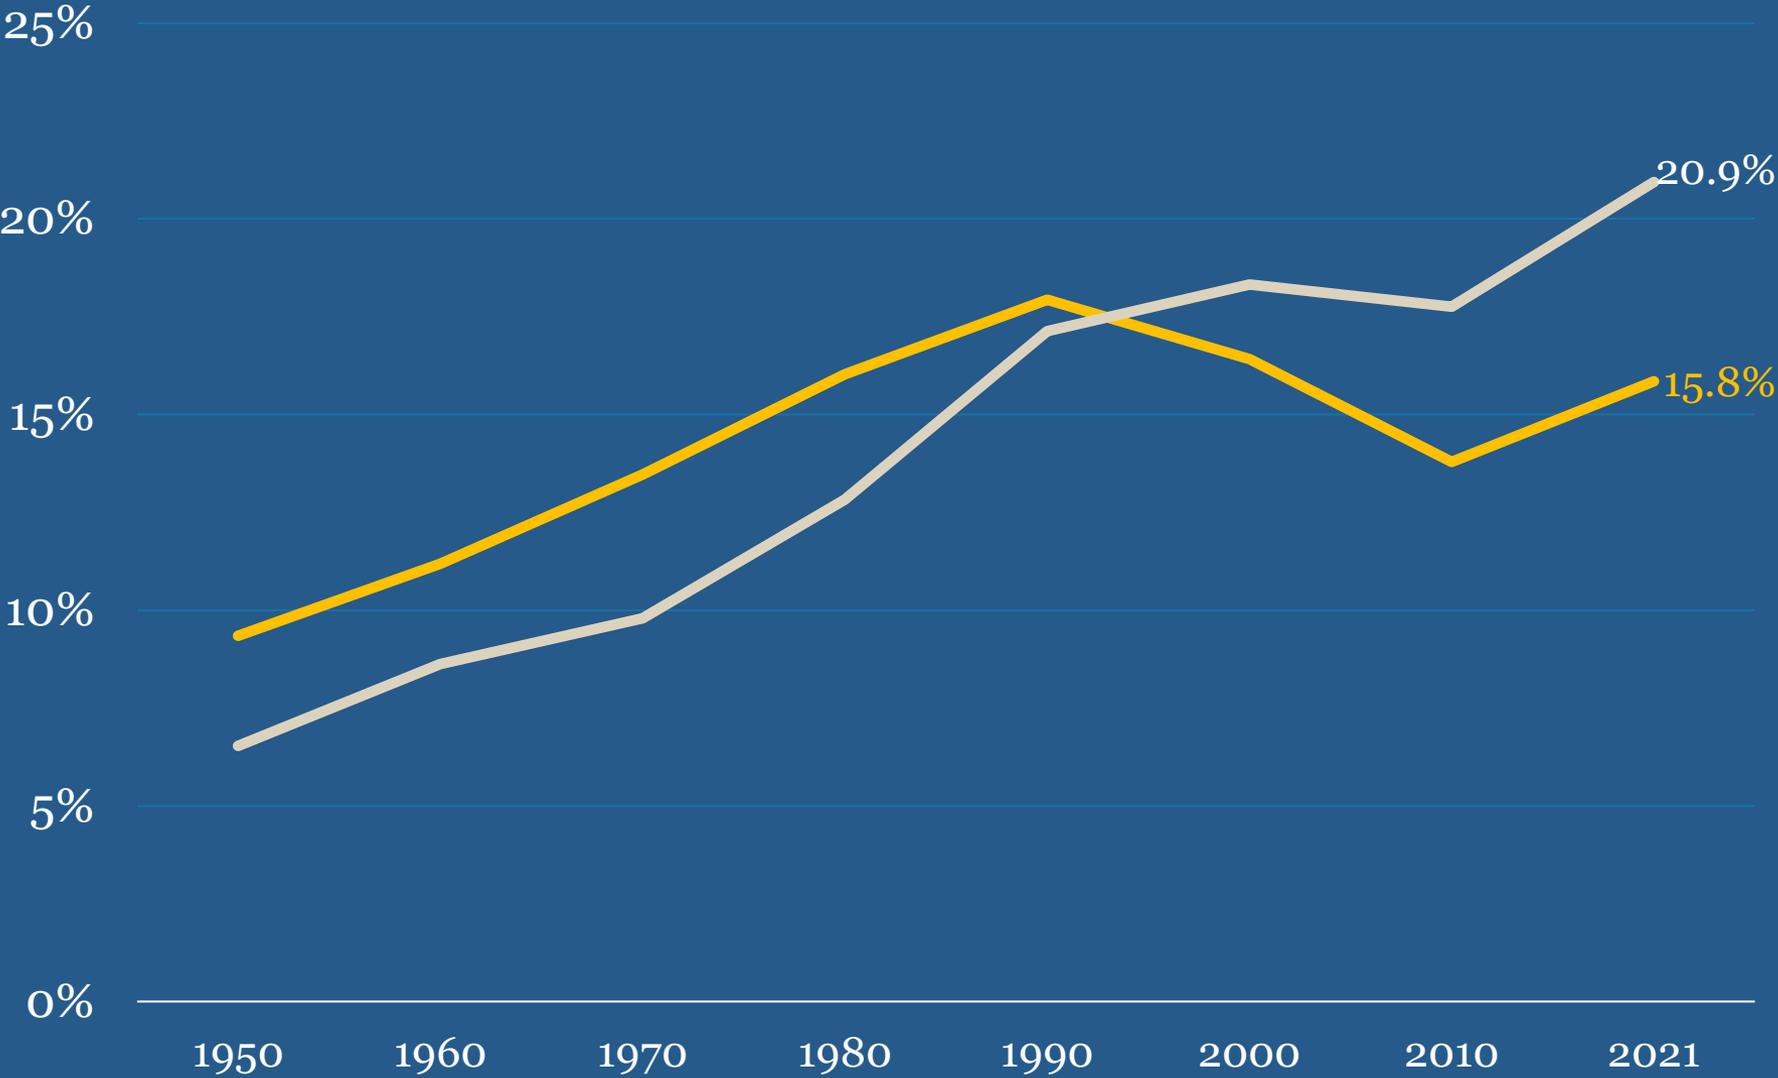

Caregiver Support Ratio (CSR):
The size of the population age 45-64 /
to the population age 80 and over

Additional Slides

When did Allegheny County become so old?

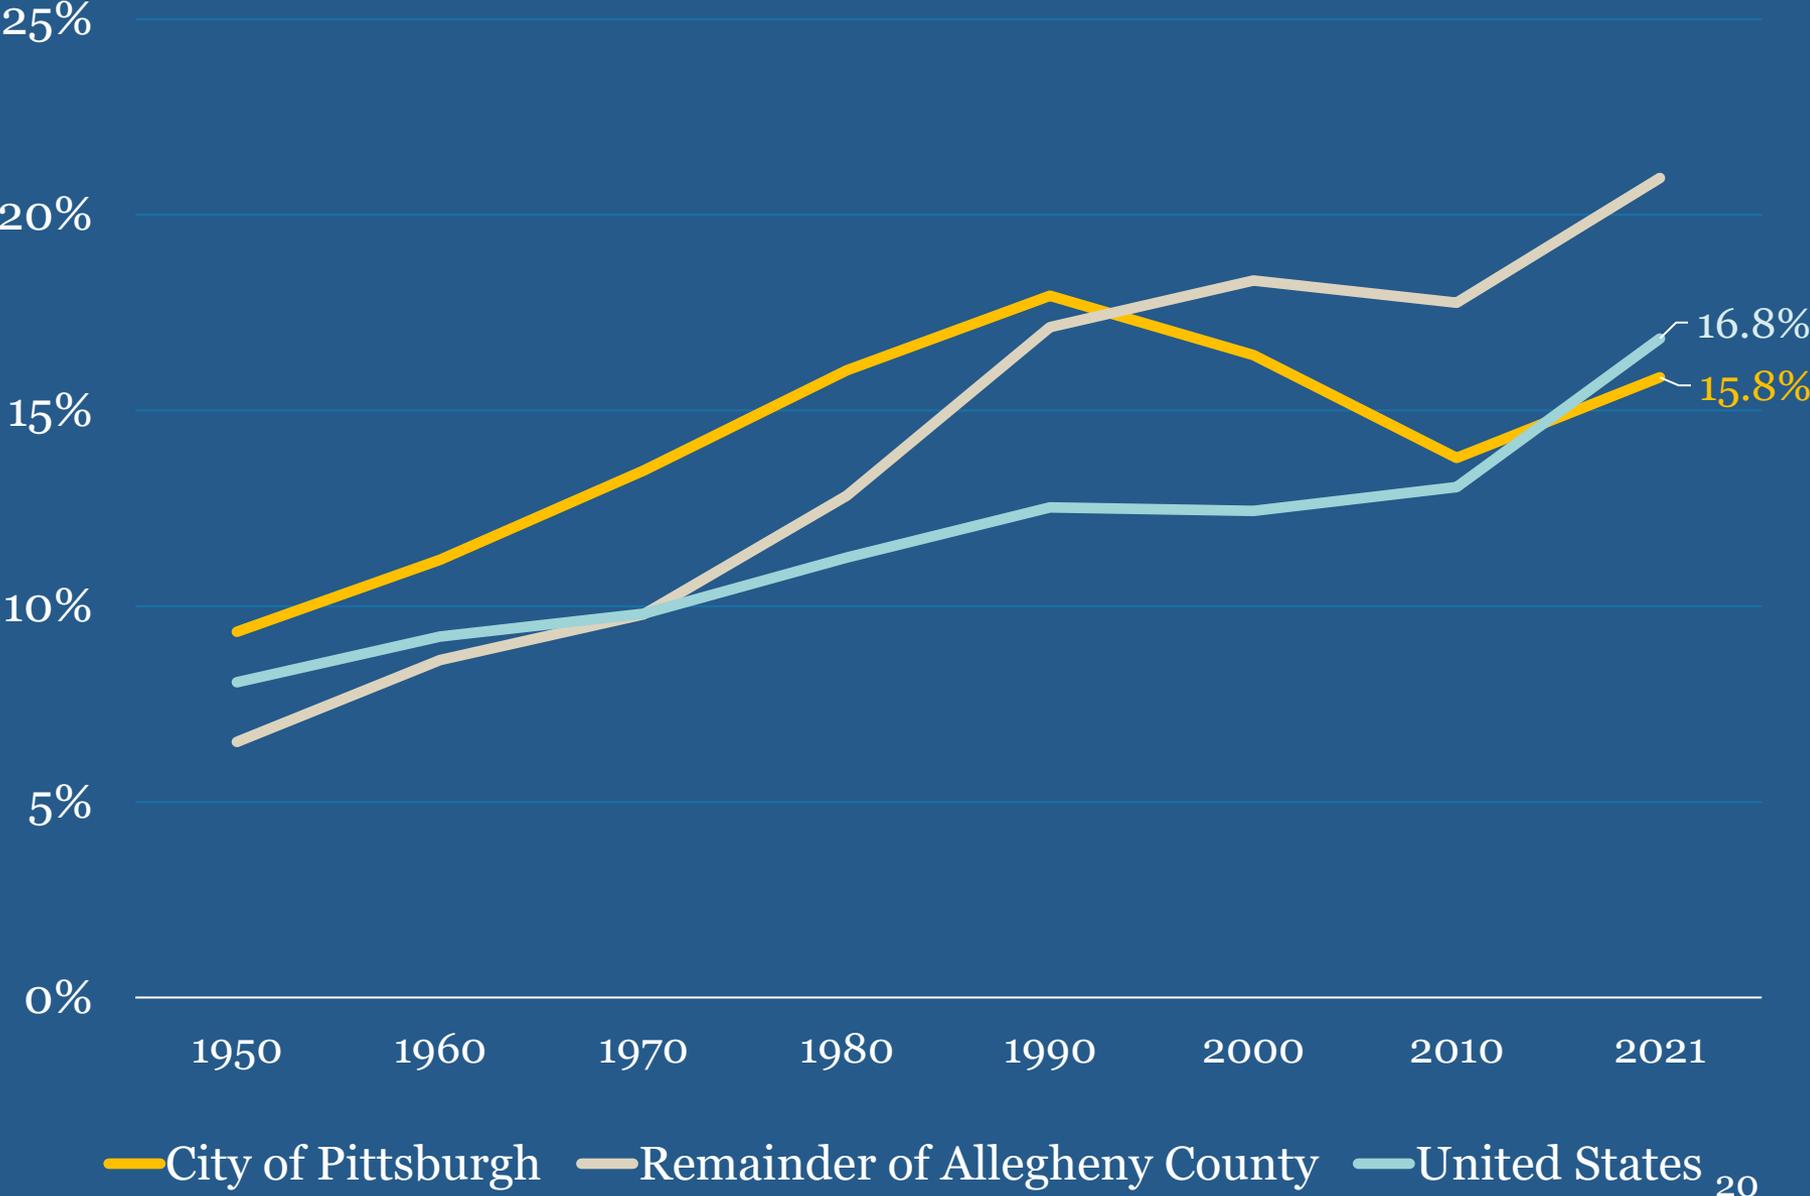

City vs. Suburb Trends

— City of Pittsburgh — Remainder of Allegheny County

City vs. Suburban Trends (Allegheny County)

Poverty Rate by Race – Population Age 65 and Over

Allegheny County, Remainder of the Pittsburgh MSA and the United States

